

LOUIS JADOT BEAUJOLAIS/MACONNAIS

Rosé 2024

France / Burgundy

Coteaux Bourguignons is a new appellation created by the Institut National des Appellations Contrôlées in 2011. It is a harmonious and representative blend of our famous grapes, coming from their homeland – Burgundy. A lively rosé from a crafted selection of Gamay from the great Burgundy region.

HARVEST NOTE

From a limited vintage in volume, 2024 has produced perfect quality of fruit with a very nice freshness.

TASTING NOTE

Well balanced, with fresh and fruity flavors of red currant and raspberry.

TECHNICAL DATA

GRAPES: 100% Gamay

APPELLATION: Côteaux Bourguignons

PH: 3.22

ACIDITY: 3.94

ABV: 12.40%

UNIQUE SELLING POINTS

- One of the most reputable houses in Burgundy, home of the #1 French Red and White wines in America
- Coteaux Bourguignons is an appellation created by the INAO in 2011
- A floral and fruity French rosé with a delicate texture

“My aim is to craft enchanting wines that taste of the great diversity of Burgundy.”
Frederic Barnier, Winemaker