JEB DUNNUCK

LA FUGA

Brunello di Montalcino DOCG 2021

92 Points

Pouring a youthful red hue, the 2021 Brunello Di Montalcino is lush and smoky on the nose, with notes of menthol, black raspberries, sappy herbs, and crushed flowers. The palate is medium to full-bodied and ripe, with fleshy texture, ripe tannins, and good length, while its acidity keeps it light on its feet. It has an open-knit, approachable feel already, yet it should also drink well for another decade.
