

LOUIS JADOT CÔTE D'OR BURGUNDIES

Corton-Pougets Grand Cru 2009

93 POINTS

Medium red with a faint hint of amber at the rim. A ripe coulis of cherry and raspberry on the nose. Wonderfully plush, plump wine with serious middle-palate richness and sweetness. Boasts terrific thickness and volume without loss of energy, even if it doesn't convey the clarity or treble notes of the less-ripe years. Finishes with a minty nuance that leavens its thickness.

Stephen Tanzer - February 08, 2019