PIGHIN

Roberto Pighin joined his father, Fernando, in running the family winery in 1986.

Roberto Pighin
Owner

Roberto Pighin has been intimately involved with his family winery since he was a child. After finishing his military service in 1986, he joined his father in running Fernando Pighin & Figli, and counts his dual contact with nature and other people among the greatest enjoyments of the wine industry.

His passion for food and cooking informs his work with wine, and he also has strong interests in music and painting. He lives in the villa in Risano with his wife and daughter.
