CRAGGY RANGE

Martinborough Pinot Noir 2022

91 Points

This dark red colored Pinot Noir from Craggy Range in New Zealand opens with a cranberry and mild strawberry bouquet with hints of tea and toasted coconut. On the palate, this wine is medium bodied with integrated medium acidity. The mouthfeel is nicely balanced, smooth, and caressing. The flavor profile is a wild strawberry and red plum blend with notes of bacon and tea. I also detected hints of cardamom and coconut flakes towards the end. The finish is dry, and its mild tannins and flavors fade away nicely.
