Wine Spectator

MICHELE CHIARLO

Cerequio Barolo Riserva DOCG 2016

93 Points

This red has settled into a nice groove, evoking fading cherry and ripe berry fruit, eucalyptus, menthol and mint notes, with an underlying mineral component. Tightens up on the finish, suggesting this still has some time to give. Balanced and elegant overall.

Bruce Sanderson - October 29, 2024

© 2026 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY | www.kobrandwineandspirits.com