

WineSpectator

PAUL JABOULET AÎNÉ

La Maison Bleue Hermitage Rouge 2021

93 Points

An elegant, beautifully perfumed style, with the high-toned, leaner character of the vintage. Snappy red licorice, cherry and apple wood smoke are dusted in white pepper. Tannins are well-polished, showing modest grip through the lengthy finish. It will be interesting to see this evolve with time in bottle.

Kristen Bieler - March 31, 2025

