

WineSpectator

PRINCIPAL

Grande Reserva 2013

92 Points

Aging gracefully, this expressive red is fresh and harmonious. Notes of bay leaf, cedar and espresso are a fragrant overtone for ripe black currant and black olive flavors enmeshed with fine-grained tannins. This shows good focus and length through to the finish of milled pepper and graphite.

Alison Napjus - February 28, 2025

