

WineSpectator

ZIND-HUMBRECHT

Pinot Gris Clos Windsbuhl Monopole 2022

93 Points

Long and drawn out, with a harmonious stream of heather, anise, dried apricot and mandarin. Creamy and briny, with salty mineral accents soaring through. Fluid, with spicy ginger notes enlivening the racy finish, marked by bitter bergamot and lime peel. Excellent, with a perfect mix of richness and energy.

Kristen Bieler - April 30, 2025

