

CHÂTEAU LA NERTHE

92 Points

Displaying a bit deeper color than most rosé wines from Provence, this also shows its southern Rhône origins with notably bolder flavors. Notes of pomegranate and rhubarb ride along with ripe strawberry notes to provide a substantial, lasting finish. Although definitely not sugary, there's a ripe sweetness to the fruit notes that is cleverly offset by a touch of pleasant bitterness in the finish.

Michael Franz - July 14, 2025

