JEB DUNNUCK

TAITTINGER

Comtes de Champagne Grands Crus Blanc de Blancs 2014

95 Points

The 2014 Champagne Blanc de Blancs Comtes de Champagne pours a bright medium yellow hue and is very pretty, with a graceful floral perfume as well as notes of brioche and lemon curd. Full-bodied but more linear, the mousse is pillow-like, powdery, and perfumed and is followed by a long finish. I love where this is now. It's quite complete and pretty already, and it's a great bottle to drink while waiting on the 2012 and 2013. It's less obvious as a vintage at this stage, but I do see it improving and developing into a very finessed wine. Drink 2025-2050.

Audrey Frick - December 23, 2025

© 2026 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY | www.kobrandwineandspirits.com