NARDI

Brunello di Montalcino DOCG 2021

92 Points

The 2021 Brunello di Montalcino leans into the riper and sweeter side of the vintage, delivering notable power driven in part by its elevated 15.5% alcohol. Plush fruit concentration and a sense of softness define the palate, which finishes with medium- to full-bodied weight and an immediately accessible profile. Produced in a sizable quantity of 120,000 bottles, this Brunello reflects the estate's broad-appeal style in a warm and generous growing season.
