JEB DUNNUCK

PAUL JABOULET AÎNÉ

La Maison Bleue Hermitage Rouge 2024

91-93 Points

Darker berries, graphite, leather, and savory herb aromatics all shine from the 2024 Hermitage La Maison Bleue, and it’s medium-bodied with a firm, focused, austere mouthfeel. It has ripe yet focusing tannins, good mid-palate depth, and outstanding length with nice overall balance. This is going to appeal to the staunch traditionalists out there.

Jeb Dunnuck - March 11, 2026

© 2026 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY | www.kobrandwineandspirits.com