FONSECA

10 Year Old Tawny Porto

90 Points

The bottle of the NV 10 Year Old Tawny Porto from Fonseca I tasted didn’t show the bottling year on the back label, but it must have been a recent one. It has a dark reddish color with some browning around the edges and a nuanced nose of berries in liqueur and some sweet spices. The wine is round, polished and quite sweet, and it feels young and unevolved but very pleasant, balanced and precise.
