

CHÂTEAU LA NERTHE

Prieuré de Montézargues Tavel Rosé 2024

95 Points

This wine combines the best of what rosé can be in one bottling. Bready aromas of brioche and red cherry tart entice the nose that also leans into orange zest and strawberry blossom. The palate channels a red wine even though it's a rosé. The wine is robust and lean muscular with an elegant gait that propels the finish.

Anna-Christina Cabrales - May 28, 2026

