

WineSpectator

ZIND-HUMBRECHT

Riesling Clos Windsbuhl Monopole 2023

93 Points

Salty and briny, with a densely packed core of ripe persimmon and zesty peach skin awash in a cooling rush of wet stone. There's a honeyed edge on the full-bodied palate, filigreed with white tea and herbs. Shows real power and stretches way out. Drink now through 2033.

Kristen Bieler - July 8, 2026

