

WineSpectator

Craggy Range

Martinborough Pinot Noir 2019

93 Points

Fresh and vibrant, with a mix of wild strawberry, raspberry and açai berry flavors on a silky frame. This has intensity but also a lovely sense of aromatics and elegance, ending with forest floor, spice and tarragon grace notes on the finish, which add a terrific savory edge. Drink now through 2030

MaryAnn Worobiec - September 28, 2022