

WineSpectator

MONTES

Purple Angel 2019

93 Points

Opens with elegant details of plumeria and wet stone that fold over onto the palate, where lively acidity drives the clove-accented red currant and raspberry flavors, adding touches of vanilla bean and baker's chocolate that persist and echo back the core flavors around fine tannins.

Aaron Romano - December 28, 2022

