

WineSpectator

TAITTINGER

Comtes de Champagne Rosé 2009

94 Points

This vinous rosé is fresh and appealing, a harmonious version that offers flavors of steeped raspberry and strawberry, white blossoms and spiced orange peel. Gains depth from a subtle chalky underpinning, and the finish shows a tactile touch of raw almond skin. This is hard to stop sipping. Pinot Noir and Chardonnay

Alison Napjus - January 3, 2023

