

Robb Report

Craggy Range

Best Wines of the Year: New Zealand

This elegant ruby-colored Pinot Noir has aromas of red raspberry, cherry, bramble, and sliced cremini mushrooms. It's gentle upon entry, with flavors of red berries, red plum, lavender, and forest floor all wrapped in a blanket of soft, round tannins. The finish has great length, with a bright splash of acidity in the post-palate.

The Robb Report - June 22, 2023

© 2025 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY | www.kobrandwineandspirits.com