

WineSpectator

TAITTINGER

Comtes de Champagne Rose 2011

94 Points

A chalky rosé Champagne, with raw silk-like texture, this leads with hints of smoke, oyster shell and dried thyme, followed by a savory streak that underscores the palate's dried raspberry, blood orange peel and blanched almond flavors. Fresh and focused through to the lightly spiced finish.

Alison Napjus - February 8, 2024

