

CHÂTEAU D'AQUERIA
Tavel Rosé 2023

91 Points

Wine Advocate

More vibrant and harmonious than the 2024, Aqueria's 2023 Tavel wafts from the glass with aromas of raspberries, wild strawberries, flowers, lilac and pomegranate. Medium- to full-bodied, structured and enveloping, it has a fleshy core of fruit, delicate tannins and a long, mouthwatering finish. This is another classic.

Tavel Rosé 2024

Wine Advocate

Notes of raspberries, wild strawberries, pomegranate and grapefruit preface the 2024 Tavel from Château d'Aquéria, a medium- to full-bodied, round and enveloping wine with a structured mid-palate and a long, spicy and generous finish.

Decanter

Lightly perfumed with raspberry and wild strawberry aromas. Bright acidity, a mineral note on the finish that is slightly saline with good length. A focused style of Tavel with a tapered finish. I would drink this young.

Tasting Panel

Tavel is the world's only appellation solely devoted to rosé wines, and Château d'Aqueira is a specialist of a very high order. This wine's beautiful ruby color displays an unwillingness to tilt toward the wildly popular style of Provence, and it is followed up by wonderfully deep flavors recalling pomegranate and ripe red cherry that remain fresh thanks to a streak of acidity that continues through the finish. Please, let this wine never change.
