Fun and fancy-free, this Pinot Grigio brims with flavors of green apple skins, potpourri, and a touch of tangelo. Despite its Italian origins, the signature copper hues of the grape evoke the idea of enjoying a pale rosé while strutting along the Croisette. Vibrant, balanced, and full of verve, this is a wine for all seasons.

A very nice zesty Italian Pinot Grigio to have on hand for the warmer months ahead. In the glass it has a bright pale straw color, and inviting pineapple, white peach, beeswax, and wet granite aromas. Crisp and dry on the palate, medium bodied, medium acidity, balanced, refreshing and fresh. There are flavors of spiced Bosc pear, pineapple, honeydew, and saline. The finish is dry and is quite long. This versatile quaffer would pair well with tarragon chicken salad on a baguette, while soaking up the sun on your deck
