A lush style, this red displays blackberry, black cherry, plum, iron and oak spice aromas and flavors. Firm tannins emerge as this plays out on the earthy finish

Made with Cabernet Sauvignon that sees 24 months in barrique, the Tenuta di Nozzole 2018 Il Pareto is a wine of depth and largesse. It awards thickly extracted fruit flavors of black plum with earth, tobacco and cured leather. Fruit comes from a nine-hectare vineyard site. This is a full-bodied red to pair with hearty Tuscan meat dishes and a side of delicious white beans.

The nose is primarily sweet, with notes of coconut, plum and berry compote, but an undertone of wild herbs provides balance. On the palate, every aroma escalates and turns more savory, calling to mind pork roasted with plums and herbs. Broad tannins give the wine an overall exuberance.

Deep and brooding, with aromas of baked cherries, plums, dark chocolate and licorice. The palate is broad and succulent, offering a full body and a plush, velvety texture. Polished and well-integrated overall.

Intense peppery nose of ripe red and dark fruit, cured meat, dried rose hips, cedar and hints of tar. Full-bodied, structured and nicely framed with firm, compact tannins. Broad and textural, with delicious, succulent fruit underneath. Long and balanced
