This wine opens with subtle aromas of white peach, grapefruit zest, pressed yellow flowers and peach pit. The expansive palate has both weight and lift, with fresh and candied citrus, crushed stone and mouthwatering acidity on the finish. This is really good!

The 2019 Grechetto captivates with a display of crushed stone and oyster shells, musky dried apricots and raw almonds. There are depths of silky textures here, nicely complemented by ripe apple and pear, and energizing acidity and salty minerals that saturate toward the close. This finishes with citrusy tension and a perfumed thrust of exotic florals and spice. Consider me a fan.

Beeswax, chamomile, herb and pomelo aromas here. Some salty undertones on the medium- to full-bodied palate. Spicy, too, with a waxy texture and long, persistent layers

A bright and crunchy white with notes of fresh stone fruit, lemon pith and acacia flowers. Medium-bodied with vivid acidity. Framed and focused with a flavorful finish.

Great and rich aromas with delicate acacia, hazelnut, almond and a touch of honey notes.
