Wine Enthusiast

This wine has an ocean vibe with wet sea shell aromas mixing with ripe white peach. The palate is light on its feet continuing with stone fruit flavors and plenty of acidity.

Wine Enthusiast

The nose of this wine feels like its hiding under wet stones. It draws you in to get to its subtle peach aromas. The palate is rich and full of grapefruit and white pepper plus lots of minerality.

Salted raspberries, summer watermelon, and a linear strike of wet stone weave through, creating a juicy, mouth-puckering pink sipper.

Tasting Panel

The 2024 rendition of this consistently fine rosé hits a winning balance between expressive fruit flavors and the sense of restraint that has made Provence the global standard for wines of this type. It shows a bit more palate weight than less expensive rosés but remains refreshing, with a touch of citrus acidity energizing classic notes of strawberries and red cherries.
