Provence White 2024

92 Points

Most consumers reflexively equate Provence with rosé wines, but this is the sort of white blend to alter that equation. Comprised of 60% Rolle (a.k.a. Vermentino), 30% Sauvignon Blanc, and 10% Grenache Blanc (10%), it offers impressive richness with no hint of oak but expressive fruit flavors recalling ripe pear and honeydew melon. Its palate weight is energized by acidity that’s so pleasantly vibrant that it almost seems prickly.
