

MEDICI ERMETE
Phermento 'Pet-Nat'
Lambrusco di Sorbara DOC
2024

94 Points

Crunchy pomegranate and wild strawberries tumble out of the glass with a zippy, tart energy that is completely irresistible, fresh herbs threading through the fruit with a wildness that feels entirely appropriate for a wine that refuses to take itself too seriously while somehow being completely serious at the same time. Taut and fresh and alive from first sip to last, this is exactly what wine looks like when it remembers that fun and interesting are not mutually exclusive.
