

CHÂTEAU DES JACQUES

92 Points

The 2020 Moulin-à-Vent is both the richest and the most refined of the three generic bottlings from the Château des Jacques, revealing aromas of cherries, smoky berries, spices and orange rind, followed by a medium to full-bodied, ample and velvety palate with lively acids and powdery structuring tannins. It's largely derived from lieu-dit Rocheegrès.

August 16, 2022

© 2024 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY

CHÂTEAU DES JACQUES

92 Points

The 2020 Moulin-à-Vent is both the richest and the most refined of the three generic bottlings from the Château des Jacques, revealing aromas of cherries, smoky berries, spices and orange rind, followed by a medium to full-bodied, ample and velvety palate with lively acids and powdery structuring tannins. It's largely derived from lieu-dit Rocheegrès.

August 16, 2022

© 2024 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY

CHÂTEAU DES JACQUES

92 Points

The 2020 Moulin-à-Vent is both the richest and the most refined of the three generic bottlings from the Château des Jacques, revealing aromas of cherries, smoky berries, spices and orange rind, followed by a medium to full-bodied, ample and velvety palate with lively acids and powdery structuring tannins. It's largely derived from lieu-dit Rocheegrès.

August 16, 2022

© 2024 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY

CHÂTEAU DES JACQUES

92 Points

The 2020 Moulin-à-Vent is both the richest and the most refined of the three generic bottlings from the Château des Jacques, revealing aromas of cherries, smoky berries, spices and orange rind, followed by a medium to full-bodied, ample and velvety palate with lively acids and powdery structuring tannins. It's largely derived from lieu-dit Rocheegrès.

August 16, 2022

© 2024 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY

CHÂTEAU DES JACQUES

92 Points

The 2020 Moulin-à-Vent is both the richest and the most refined of the three generic bottlings from the Château des Jacques, revealing aromas of cherries, smoky berries, spices and orange rind, followed by a medium to full-bodied, ample and velvety palate with lively acids and powdery structuring tannins. It's largely derived from lieu-dit Rochegrès.

August 16, 2022

© 2024 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY

CHÂTEAU DES JACQUES

92 Points

The 2020 Moulin-à-Vent is both the richest and the most refined of the three generic bottlings from the Château des Jacques, revealing aromas of cherries, smoky berries, spices and orange rind, followed by a medium to full-bodied, ample and velvety palate with lively acids and powdery structuring tannins. It's largely derived from lieu-dit Rochegrès.

August 16, 2022

© 2024 Kobrand Corporation, Purchase, NY

