Malbec 2017

B+

The alcohol is a bit high, but you wouldn't know it, as it is tightly woven into the wine allowing the acidity to brighten up the aromas of cherry, blackberry fruit and shaved coconut along with the savory tones of black olive and earth (like dirt but awesome - actually dirt is awesome - so dirt). This is one of those ultimate party wines that everyone will like and it may turn some heads when they taste that savory goodness and are told it's Malbec.
