

VILLA MATILDE

Falerno del Massico Rosso DOP 2016

92 POINTS

Here in the 2015 Falerno del Massico Rosso I'm finding ripe cherries and blackberries mixed with sweet herbs, earthy mineral tones, and hints of animal musk. On the palate, silky textures flood the senses with violet-tinged black fruits, as brisk acids carry the 2015 Villa Matilde effortlessly, depositing chalky minerals and hints of spiced orange in their wake. The finish is long, showing a tug of war between acids and tannins, as dried wild berry fruits resonate throughout. It's a standout from my tastings of Falerno del Massico.
