

WineSpectator

Viewers: 386,833 | Frequency: Monthly

ZIND-HUMBRECHT

Pinot Gris Clos Jepsal, Vendange Tardive, Vielles Vignes 2018

93 POINTS

A vibrant vendange tardive, lightly mouthcoating and just off-dry, backed by racy acidity. This layers a steak of salinity under its rich panoply of flavors, from notes of dried papaya, candied pink grapefruit zest and blood orange sorbet to accents of praline, beeswax and honeysuckle. Long and creamy on the mouthwatering finish.

Alison Napjus - June 25, 2021

